

STOCKTAKE NOTICE

Please be advised that Unique Micro Design will be conducting stocktaking on Tuesday 30th June and Wednesday 1st July 2026.

Throughout this week our usual outbound delivery times will likely be impacted. To ensure timely dispatch of goods and to minimise the potential of any delays during this week, we kindly request that orders be placed for processing prior to midday on the 26th June. We will continue to accept orders throughout the week of the stocktake, however processing and dispatch for these orders may occur during the week commencing 6th July.

Our sales and support teams will remain contactable during this time, although response times may be affected.

We appreciate your cooperation and support. Should you have any urgent requirements, please contact our team ahead of the scheduled dates.
